

SPAIN TORN
BY A REVOLT

According to Information
Allowed to Leak Out
from That Country

MAY BRING SPAIN
INTO THE BIG WAR

There Is Much Speculation as to the Cause of Unrest

London, June 16.—Rumors of a serious revolutionary movement in Spain are given prominence in a section of the press. There has been almost a complete absence of news from the peninsula since the appointment of the new ministry.

Rumors of something abnormal in the Spanish situation have been given prominence in the last two or three days in a small section of the press, and to-day several papers print articles declaring that something important is happening. One suggestion is that a movement to bring Spain into the war is materializing, but the little information available is to the effect that the crisis is purely domestic and largely due to a demand for reforms by the rank and file of the army.

FRENCH TRANSPORT WAS TORPEDOED

The Amman Was Then Taken in Tow By
One of Her Convoys But Sank.

Paris, June 16.—It is officially announced that the transport Amman was torpedoed in the Ionian seas June 11, while proceeding under escort. The Amman was taken in tow by one of the convoying ships, but sank in a few hours. There were no casualties.

TAX ON NET PROFITS.

To Be Assessed Against American Publishers.

Washington, D. C., June 16.—A new tax of five per cent. on net profits of all newspaper and magazine publishers was written into the war tax bill yesterday by the Senate finance committee in lieu of two per cent. advertising tax previously agreed upon, and of the second-class mail rate increases proposed in the House bill.

The profits tax plan is estimated to raise about $15,000,000, or about the same advertising tax previously proposed, and was adopted by a bare majority of one vote, with several members absent. There now is pending a motion by Senator Penrose, who voted for the House bill, to reconsider the decision Monday.

The committee also decided by a majority of one vote to repeal the "drawback" allowance to sugar refiners, raising $19,000,000 additional revenue. After voting on the publishers' tax and sugar "drawback," both of which have been strenuously opposed and under consideration a fortnight, the committee adjourned until Monday, with the prospect of another week's delay in completing the bill. Questions which Senator Simmons said probably will require several days to settle and virtually the only ones remaining, were possible reconsideration of the publishers' tax, the rate to be fixed on excess profits and the income tax section.

KAISER ANGERED

Because of "Infamous Outrage" Against Constantine.

Berlin, via London, June 16.—A telegram from Berlin says Emperor William has addressed the following message to one of the Greek diplomatic representatives abroad for transmission to former King Constantine.

"I have heard with wrath of the infamous outrage committed by our common enemies upon you and upon your dynasty. I assure you that your deprivation can be only temporary. The mailed fist of Germany, with further aid from almighty God, will restore you to your throne, of which no man by right can rob you. The armies of Germany and Germany's allies will wreak vengeance on those who have dared so insolently to lay their criminal hands upon you. We hope to welcome you in Germany at the earliest opportunity. A thousand cordial greetings from—
"Your William."

TRAIN AVIATORS IN U. S.

Great Elementary Base Is Planned for the Allies.

Washington, D. C., June 16.—Plans for making the United States a great elementary training base for aviators of all the allied nations have been formulated by the defense council's aircraft production board, which believes this country can supply only machines suited for training work for some months to come, but can take care of the needs of all the allies in that respect.

French and British plans under the plan would be released for the manufacture of battlecraft, exclusively, while American plants are developing a battle type which by next spring probably would give a formidable and steadily increasing addition to the French and British supplies.

BLOCKADE STARTED.

German Submarines Thought to Be Operating Off Cadix.

Paris, June 16.—A semi-official note says that the German submarine U-52, which was towed to Cadix June 11, was operating outside that port on the 12th. A Norwegian steamer was torpedoed off Huelva and a Russian sailing vessel between Larache and Cadix, which leads to a belief that a group of submarines has been sent to blockade the ports of Cadix and Huelva.

BULLETCOURT AGAIN
SCENE OF BATTLE

Field Marshal Haig has taken another bite into the Hindenburg line and has captured a section of the famous German position northwest of Bullecourt.

The British advance in this section is the first determined one made there since the end of the sanguinary fighting which resulted in the capture of the town of Bullecourt by the British and is in the direction of Hendecourt-Lez-Cagnicourt. The Germans resisted the British stubbornly but finally yielded, after suffering heavy casualties, according to the London war office.

EMMA GOLDMAN ARRESTED.

Alexander Berkman Was Also Taken in New York.

New York, June 16.—Emma Goldman, editor of Mother Earth, and Alexander Berkman, editor of "The Blast," known throughout the United States as anarchists, were locked up in the Tombs last night on a complaint charging them with engaging in a conspiracy to induce men of military age not to register under the selective draft law.

The arrests were made by Thomas D. McCarthy, United States marshal, in a raid on the headquarters of the No-Conscription league. The office of the two publications are located in the same building.

Neither Miss Goldman nor Berkman seemed perturbed at their arrest. The former was smiling when she was led to her cell. She has previously served a term in the city penitentiary for inciting to riot during the cloakmakers' strike.

Berkman, who fell down stairs and broke one leg a few weeks ago, walked on crutches. He joked with the deputy marshals who had him in custody. He was no stranger to prison life as he served 14 years of a 20-year term for shooting Henry C. Frick.

ANTI-CONSCRIPTION RIOT.

Made Lively Work for National Guardsmen in New York.

New York, June 16.—National Guardsmen tried vainly for nearly two hours last night to disperse a riotous crowd which had assembled around the hall in the east side in which an anti-conscription mass meeting had been held earlier in the evening.

The anger of the crowd was roused because guardsmen and police had seized after the close of the meeting 26 men who were suspected of not having registration cards. A crowd of men and women surged around the hall and the troops who tried to disperse them were almost overwhelmed. The police took little part in the attempt to quell the disorder, evidently not caring to interfere with the soldiers. Not until the guardsmen drew their revolvers were they able to drive the crowd into side streets.

FOUR STATES LACKING.

And Draft Registration Is Now Nearly
9,000,000 Men.

Washington, D. C., June 16.—With the totals from four states still not reported, the nation's military registration roll had almost touched nine millions last night and officials still predicted the final tabulation would show more than nine and a half millions.

The total from 44 states and the District of Columbia, was 8,898,517 compared to a census estimate of 9,621,837. For the four states yet to report, Massachusetts, Kentucky, Montana and Wyoming, the aggregate census estimate is more than 880,000.

How Do Your Feet Stand the Heat?

Extremes of heat and extremes of cold have adverse effect on the feet of some people, and it is wise to prepare for prevention of trouble according to the season we are approaching. We are glad that cold weather can have no error for us in the way of foot trouble for some months to come, but we have to face a possible discomfort, due to midsummer heat, and the effect registers in the face when the feet ache and burn.

Women should make it a point to wear comfortable shoes in the summer time for more walking is done, more outdoor recreation is indulged in, and the vitality is taxed to a greater extent in hot weather than in any of the other seasons and enjoyment is lessened with discomfort to the feet.

Those pestering little corns, aching bunions, nagging soft corns, and sore tired feet all seem to do their worst to fret one with the advent of warm weather and all the means we know of should be used to allay the suffering.

To take the "tired" out of the feet put them in a hot soapy bath for fifteen minutes, then into another of clear water with some of those tablets which are veritable "foot-easers," then dry and shake some hygienic powder over them before putting on your stockings. The stockings must be a little longer than the foot if they are to be comfortable and not cause more foot trouble. Fresh hose every day should be the rule, and it is no trouble to wash out a pair of hose at night, which will be ready to don in the morning.

Massaging the feet with a good cold cream is very beneficial and relieves so much of the ache and tension of the day. As soon as ever you have an opportunity after a day on your feet, change your shoes, for that alone is restful and helpful. Not to any old pair, but to a pair that will encase the foot snugly but not uncomfortably—just enough to support the tired muscles and take away the strain.

If you have corns from ill-fitting shoes, either too loose or too tight, get rid of them. I can recommend a remedy if you want me to. Then if you bathe your feet frequently and wear comfortable shoes you will soon find that this foot trouble is a thing of the past.—Woman's World for July.

A Great Trust.

"What I want," said Farmer Cornsoul, "is a man in whose honesty, discretion and skill I can place implicit reliance."

"You want a confidential secretary," said a man.

"No, I don't. I want a man I can trust to plant potatoes."—Washington Star.

FATALLY INJURED
BY AUTOMOBILE

Fred Brouillard of Burlington Had Skull
Fractured and Right Shoulder Broken.

Burlington, June 16.—Fred Brouillard was struck by an automobile and fatally injured last evening, the accident occurring opposite his home on the lower road to Winooski. Alex Hulburd was operating the machine which is one of those in use between Fort Ethan Allen and this city for the accommodation of the soldiers.

Hulburd claimed to the authorities that he was unable to avert hitting Brouillard, who was evidently turning into his own yard. Hulburd's machine was headed towards Winooski and another car was coming towards this city. Brouillard was walking to his home from the wood yard on the opposite side of the road where he was employed. The accident happened at a sharp turn in the road.

The injured man was picked up unconscious and hurried to the Mary Fletcher hospital where it was found that he had suffered a fracture of the skull at the top of the head and that his right shoulder had been broken. All efforts to revive him failed and it was stated at the hospital that the man could not live.

RUN OVER BY AUTO.

William Debuque of Hyde Park Was Badly Injured.

Hyde Park, June 16.—William Debuque, aged 30 years, while trying to jump on to a moving auto truck, in this village yesterday, fell and was run over, the heavy rear wheel passing over his groin. He was injured so severely that he was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment. His case is a serious one. He has a young wife and child.

FOUND DAUGHTER IN PRISON.

Came from Massachusetts and Paid the Girl's Fine.

Rutland, June 16.—After a search of four weeks for her missing 14-year-old daughter, Mary, Mrs. E. S. White of Northampton, Mass., finally located her in the house of correction in this city, through inquiries of the Rutland sheriff department, and Thursday the woman came to this city, paid the girl's fine and took her back to her home, whence she had run away on April 21.

The girl left home with Edna Voeberg, 17 years of age. The two traveled to Vermont and spent three weeks in St. Albans and Swanton, later going to Winooski, where they were arrested for immoral conduct. The girls gave fictitious names and claimed their ages to be 17 and 19 years, respectively.

From the day Mary White disappeared from home, her family had no trace of her, and her mother had feared that she was dead. Considerable money had been spent in the search that ended in Rutland.

Edna Voeberg was a neighbor of the White family, and on the day the girls ran away the older girl went to the house and helped Mary wash the dinner dishes. Later Mary asked her mother if she might go for a walk with Edna. That was the last seen of the two.

When arrested the girls claimed to be Doris and Edna Mayo, cousins.

LOST ALIENATION SUIT.

Benjamin F. Rockwood Sued Elmer J.
Wolcott.

Middlebury, June 16.—The arguments in the Addison county court case of Benjamin F. Rockwood against Elmer J. Wolcott were heard yesterday. The opening argument for the plaintiff was made by Attorney Powell of Burlington. He was followed by James B. Donaway of Middlebury, counsel for the defense.

E. E. Brown of Burlington made the closing plea for the plaintiff. The arguments occupied all the forenoon.

The court came in at 1:30 and Judge Waterman took a half hour to charge the jury, and at 2:30 the jury returned with a verdict of not guilty. The plaintiff, Rockwood, sued Wolcott to recover $5,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections. The case has occupied the time of the court since Tuesday morning.

A Joke on the Doctor.

A physician boarded a crowded cross-town car. A woman was standing and a big German, seated, sprawling over twice the space necessary. Indignantly, the doctor said to him:

"See here! Why don't you move a little so that this tired woman may have a seat?"

For a moment the German looked dazed. Then a broad smile spread over his face as he answered:

"Say, dot's a joke on you, all right! Dot's my wife!"—Harper's Magazine.

LYNN NEWSPAPER
SEIZED BY GOVT.;
TWO MEN HELD

One of the Men Is Supposed to Be Louis
Galleani, Who Resided for a Time in Barre—They are Charged with Spreading Anti-Conscription Propaganda.

Boston, June 16.—Deputy United States Marshal Brockford yesterday placed under arrest in Lynn, John Errano of 87 Andrews street, compositor in the printing establishment at 32 Oxford street, where an Italian Anarchist newspaper is printed. At the same time this week's edition of the newspaper was seized by government officials. Errano was charged with spreading anti-conscription propaganda.

Some time ago many billboards, trees and walls were covered with anti-conscription propaganda bills. These were torn down by the local police and the federal authorities were notified. Immediately a still hunt for the perpetrators was begun. The result came yesterday with Errano's arrest, and the arrest early in the morning of Louis Galleani in Wrentham, owner and editor of the paper.

The two were arraigned before the United States commissioner in Boston, pleaded not guilty, and were held in $10,000 for a hearing June 23.

Marshal Brockford first visited the headquarters of the Lynn Anarchists on Howard street, Lynn. Here he interviewed several men who were looking about the place. From what he learned there, it is claimed, he discovered the printing establishment on Oxford street. When he arrived there he placed Errano under arrest, then interviewed three other men about the place before seizing the paper.

Errano is said to be a prominent Anarchist and a friend of Emma Goldman.

The Lewis Galleani referred to in the above dispatch is supposed to be Louis Galleani, who for a few years was a resident of Barre and was connected with the newspaper Cronaca Sovversiva. Galleani left Barre about five years ago.

DEATH OF PETER MUTCH.

Barre Man Had Been in Arizona for Benefit of His Health.

A telegram received in Barre this morning announced the death at Phoenix, Ariz., of Peter W. Mutch, a well known Barre man who has been there for the past year and a half because of failing health. The telegram was from George Mutch, who left Barre on May 16 for Phoenix on receipt of information that his brother was declining rapidly. Mrs. Mutch went to Phoenix last December. The remains will be brought to Barre, probably arriving here on Saturday, June 23.

Peter Mutch was born in Scotland 40 years ago and came to the United States with his mother when he was a young man. He had resided here for 18 years, being connected with the granite business. Recently he had been a partner with Arthur Loranger in the firm of Mutch & Loranger. On leaving for the West late in 1915 he sold his interest in the business. He was a member of Granite lodge, F. and A. M., being a past master in the lodge. He also was a member of Clan Gordon, O. S. C. He was a man who was held in high esteem.

Mr. Mutch leaves a wife and two daughters, Elsie and Caroline, also two brothers, George Mutch of Barre, and James Mutch, formerly of Barre, but who is now thought to be with the Canadian army on the western war front. His mother died several years ago.

WANTED TO REGISTER.

Man Was Turned Over to U. S. Officials
Pending Examination.

A man giving his name as George Tarshis, his age as 21, his occupation as salesman and manufacturer, and his residence as 830 Whittier street, the Bronx, New York, applied at the county clerk's office in Montpelier today for military registration papers. Mrs. L. C. Moody, wife of the county clerk, who was in charge of the office, turned the man over to the sheriff's department, and Deputy Sheriff Emery, in turn, took the man to Adjutant-General Tillotson's office. The last-named official then returned the man to the jail and notified Deputy U. S. Marshal George Lackey. The deputy marshal took up the case with the U. S. commissioner, H. C. Shurtleff, and the latter is conducting further investigation.

Tarshis told a story of having been registered in May, but his account was so hazy that it was thought best to hold the fellow until an examination could be made.

FELL OFF GROUT CAR.

Peter Pelky of Upper Graniteville Is Being Treated at Hospital.

Peter Pelky of upper Graniteville was brought to the City Hospital Friday evening to be treated for injuries received in an accident at the Wetmore & Morse quarry in the afternoon. The man fell over the edge of a grout car and sustained a grievous cut under the right arm, a cut on the face and bruises about the body. When he landed, a sharp piece of stone made a puncture wound under the arm, which is regarded as the most serious of his injuries. He fell a distance of 15 feet, but did not lose consciousness. Dr. E. H. Riley was called and after an examination of the injuries he ordered the man removed to the hospital. To-day he was reported to be in a fairly comfortable condition.

MRS. AMELIA F. HUTCHINSON.

Williamstown Woman Died at Barre
Hospital This Morning.

Mrs. Amelia F. Hutchinson, wife of Grover Hutchinson of Williamstown, passed away at the City Hospital early this forenoon, the end following an illness of five weeks. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, aged 10 and six, and a son, who is nearly a year old. Also surviving are her mother and several sisters. The deceased was a native of northern New York and was around 35 years old. Her maiden name was Amelia Fifer. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

OVER 800,000 TOOK
U. S. BONDS

Grand Total May Run as High as $300,000,000

Boston, June 16.—Buried beneath an avalanche of unchecked returns, the official tabulators of the New England subscriptions to the Liberty loan, after working all night at the Boston Federal Reserve bank, said to-day that it probably would be Monday before the official figures of the total would become known. The total subscriptions for the district were far in excess of $263,300,000, the amount announced when the lists were added up at 5 o'clock last night. Conservative estimates placed the grand total between $270,000,000 and $300,000,000. There were over 800,000 subscribers in the district.

2,569 SUBSCRIBERS

To Liberty Loan Through Barre Banks—
Average Subscription $163.

A total of 2,569 subscriptions were received through the Barre banks for the Liberty loan, according to the returns completed by the four institutions to-day. Inasmuch as the total subscription from Barre was $425,000, the average subscription from Barre was $165. There were also some subscriptions made before the Barre campaign was started and some made through other channels. One of the latest subscriptions from organizations was $100 from the carpenters' union.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION.

Barre Liberty Loan Committee Commends Barre Spirit.

The Liberty loan committee representing the banks of Barre wishes to thank the public for the hearty response it has given in subscribing for the loan; also those who took part in the house-to-house canvass, which proved so great a success, about $32,000 being raised by them. We also extend to the Barre Daily Times our sincere appreciation for their hearty co-operation in this campaign for the grand old U. S. A. We feel that Barre may well be proud of its accomplishment in over-subscribing its allotment of this loan.

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY

After Trial on Charge of Selling Liquor Illegally.

After deliberating for nearly two and one-half hours, the jury in the case of State vs. Mrs. Aurelio Villa, charged with selling liquor illegally, returned a verdict of guilty in city court yesterday afternoon. The verdict was reported by William McDonald, the foreman, at 4:30 o'clock, but Magistrate H. W. Scott, who presided at the trial, reserved sentence until this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time counsel for the defense expects to have ready a number of motions. After the verdict was received, attorneys for Mrs. Villa intimated that exceptions might be entered in supreme court. Once in mid-afternoon, the jury returned to report a disagreement, but the judge sent them back after a portion of the forenoon's testimony had been read.

Grand Juror William Wishart conducted the prosecution and the state case was built up around a disclosure made by Robert Heaphy, although other witnesses summoned by the state testified to frequenting the respondent's house on Berlin street. Mrs. Villa was defended by R. A. Hoar and A. G. Fay and the only witness besides herself was Josephine Rizzi, a servant in the respondent's house. A few weeks ago Mrs. Villa paid a fine of $300 and costs after having been convicted of a similar charge on the alleged statements of young men from Graniteville.

MASS MEETING IN BARRE

Will Be Held Sunday Evening to Further
Red Cross Work.

The Barre campaign to assist in raising $20,000 in Vermont for Red Cross work begins officially Sunday evening, when a mass meeting will be held at the Barre opera house beginning at 8 o'clock. Harold W. Slocum, director of the Vermont chapter of the society, and Rev. Paul D. Moody, the chaplain of the 1st Vermont infantry, will be the speakers. An urgent invitation is extended to the general public and a large audience is expected.

Efficient, Yet Inefficiency.

BROOKFIELD SENDS
RECRUITS TO CO. C
AFTER FINE RALLY

Enlistments from Washington, Graniteville and Braintree Bring Company
Nearly to War Strength.

Early this morning the C company recruiting party returned to Barre after a week in Orange county towns, the detail in khaki having broken camp in Brookfield late last night, following one of the most enthusiastic rallies of the swing around the circle. The net results of the trip are altogether encouraging, and within a few days it is expected that C company will have been recruited to war strength. Grand Juror William Wishart was the principal speaker at the Brookfield rally, and the audience there heard some clinching arguments in favor of National Guard enlistments. Atty. Wishart, himself a veteran of the Spanish-American war, spoke spiritedly, and his remarks touched a responsive chord in the young manhood of the vicinity.

To-day six additions to the honor roll were made, the following men having set out for the fort this morning:

John Roberts of Brookfield.
William Hull of Brookfield.
Fred A. Roberts of Washington.
Henry M. Gallagher of Graniteville.
Malcolm McCaskill of Graniteville.
Leonard A. Farnsworth of Braintree.

Five more young men from Brookfield and adjacent towns are to report their decisions to Lieut. H. P. Shaw to-night. At the rally last evening, a stirring appeal was made by Rev. William Taylor, and brief speeches were given also by two Grand Army veterans and N. B. Ballard and William D. McDonald of the Barre committee. The Scottish bagpipes and drums were used effectively, and just before the meeting the soldiers went through a Butts physical drill. Mr. Fulam, master of the grange, Mr. Carpenter, a veteran of '61, and Lieut. Shaw were among those who spoke to the young men.

This morning the C company troops pitched their "pup" tents in City park again, there to remain until Monday or Tuesday. A fresh drive on the villages in Barre Town is planned for this afternoon.

DISCUSS MILITARY TRAINING.

Some Are Proposing the Beginning of Course in Barre.

There is some discussion on the street of the practicability of establishing a training corps here this summer at which men who are liable to the draft, and any others who wish to attend, may acquire a knowledge of military ethics. The idea of the training would be to fit the men taking the course so that they would have the jump on others entering the conscripted army and would thus be more likely to get rapid promotion. The war department has stated that men with previous military knowledge are assured of quicker notice in the drafted army. Barre's first call will take between 60 and 100 young men, but since the men are to be chosen by the jury wheel method, there is no way of knowing it would be to the benefit of the thousand men who registered on June 5 to acquire all the military knowledge they can as a preparedness measure and also for their own good.

Barre has plenty of space for the training, the Lincoln campus probably offering the best opportunity. Instruction could be easily obtained from among the men of former military service within the city and it is probable that Gov. Horace E. Graham could be induced to order one National Guard man to take charge of the regiment. Drill could take place in the evening, three, four, five or even six nights a week, and a summer camp this way would leave the men taking the training well-grounded in the fundamentals of the war game. Guns are not necessary for this fundamental training and the manual of arms can be learned with dummy guns. Close formation and extended order, squad, company, battalion, and regimental drill, could all be learned. If Barre should establish such a regiment it would be the only place in Vermont where such a thing is being done. The Home Guard could also enter into the drill.

FIRST AID INSTRUCTION.

Dr. M. J. Shields, Representing Red Cross, to Be in Barre Several Weeks.

"Business as usual." Notwithstanding the tremendous activities of the Red Cross is still carrying on what might be termed its home industry in the shape of first aid education.

Dr. M. J. Shields of the first aid division of the Red Cross has arrived in Barre for a campaign of safety first and first aid lectures and demonstrations to the quarry and stone plants and will make Barre his headquarters for several weeks.

This educational course of instruction has been carried on by the Red Cross for the past seven years as one of the philanthropies of the Red Cross and its results have proven of great benefit to miners, railroad men, electric light, telephone, street car, police and firemen and the public generally, and as a result there are now some 5,000,000 aid classes being taught in the United States.

The instruction consists of teaching safety first methods and practical demonstrations of how to stop bleeding, clean treatment of wounds, temporary splints for fractures, methods of handling and transportation of the injured, also treatment of electric shock, drowning, etc., in fact, what to do before the doctor comes.

This work is free and without cost to anyone. It is simply the means of using some of the fund of the Red Cross in a way that will accomplish the greatest good.

Dr. Shields hopes to get the co-operation of the quarry companies in this, the "world's greatest granite center." While stationed here he will also be glad to address other industries and assist the Red Cross chapters in organizing first aid classes which is one of the important branches of Red Cross chapters activities.

Gay R. Varnum went to Fort Ethan Allen to-day to apply for admission into the second training camp for officers at Fort Myers, Va.

92 GRADUATES
AT SPAULDING

Record-Breaking Class in the High School Has Soldiers

ELIZABETH H. LA FLAM
WON FIRST HONOR

Prof. James L. McConaughy of Dartmouth College
Gave Address

Ninety-two graduates received diplomas at the 24th annual commencement of Spaulding high school last evening. Exercises marking the distribution of certificates to 25 graduates in the academic course, to 31 in the English course, to 19 in the commercial course, and to 17 in the teacher training class were held in the opera house, which was crowded to the exits by friends of those whom Spaulding sends out into the world to join the long list of its sons and daughters who have gone before. The speaker of the evening was Prof. James L. McConaughy of the department of education at Dartmouth college, who delivered an illuminating discourse, and other participants included Miss Elizabeth H. La Flam, who was awarded first honor in scholastic standing, and Miss Marguerite Currier, who stood second in the class. The third honor student, Miss Grace Irene Bixby of East Barre, did her part in the class day exercises Thursday.

For the first time since the old Barre academy offered its brain and brawn to the cause of liberty for black men back in 1861 graduates of Barre's public preparatory school are enrolled in the nation's army and received credit for completing their courses, even though the exigencies of the occasion demanded that they report for duty some time before school closed. Four of the 1917 graduates are with the colors, but it was so ordered last night that they should be among the students who received their diplomas in person, and the long line of seniors conventionally garbed was broken here and there by soldierly young men in khaki. All of the senior contingent was with Barre companies in the 1st Vermont regiment of infantry and there names are: Norman Seaver Gordon, Richard Ernest Crickchank, Lee Archibald Mendenhall and Wilfred Dewey Lovin. Something which surcharged the applause from the audience, at first when the seniors marched into the house and again when the graduates filed across the stage to receive their diplomas, seemed to indicate that the crowd was well aware of the honor which the recruits had bestowed upon the class of 1917 by volunteering at the first call of the colors.

The school colors, gold and white, were wrought into a harmonious scheme for the stage decorations, which were first used for the class day exercises. The stage arrangement was simple and in good taste. Over the rostrum was suspended the motto, "Not for self, but for country," a motto which the class has admirably exemplified by sending four of its young men to the colors, as mentioned already, and by turning over to the school the gift of a $100 Liberty bond. Seated on the stage were: C. H. White of the city schools, Prin. H. H. Jackson of Spaulding, Prof. McConaughy, Rev. J. B. Beardon of the Universalist church, and members of the school board.

Music for the senior march was in charge of Miss Josephine M. Hovey, the superintendent of music in the city schools, and her assistant, Miss L. Blanche Russell. The former directed the chorus of seniors during the evening and Miss Russell played the accompaniment. To the strains of the march, the class, marshaled by Harold White, filed slowly down the main aisle to seats reserved for them near the orchestra. Prayer was
